

Advertisement - Columbian Centinel (published as Columbian Centinel. Massachusetts Federalist.) -
April 17, 1802 - page [1]

Advertisement | Columbian Centinel (published as Columbian Centinel. Massachusetts Federalist.) | Boston, Massachusetts | April 17, 1802 |

Advertisement | Newspaper | Newspaper | image | [1] | 14 | XXXVII | © This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society. 2004.

Education.

MR<sup>S</sup>. CRANCH, at the Upper Bridge, in Milton, proposes taking 12 or 14 Misses, from 6 to 14
years of age, to instruct in plain needle-work, embroidery, working mullin, &c. ; in reading, writing, English grammar, arithmetic, geography, astronomy, rhetoric, composition, &c.

Mrs. Cranch will bend her whole attention to instil into the minds of her pupils, good principles, and good dispositions, and to give them, not only the polish of outward manners, but that politeness, which is the result of kind affections and benevolent propensities.

Terms—30 dollars per quarter, for board and tuition.—
Washing may be done in the neighborhood for 50 cents per dozen. Some of her former scholars have had it done at home, the distance from Boston being but 7 miles, and Canton stage passing by the door twice a week.

Milton, April 17. 1802.

Advertisement - Independent Chronicle (published as The Independent Chronicle) - April 4, 1804 - page [1]

Advertisement | Independent Chronicle (published as The Independent Chronicle) | Boston, Massachusetts | April 4, 1804 | Advertisement | Newspaper | Newspaper | image | [1] | 2403 | XXXVI | © This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society. 2004.

OF EDUCATION.

Academy for Young Ladies, near the Meeting-house in Milton.

MRS. CRANCH, respectfully informs her Friends and the Public in general, That she shall be ready on Monday, 23d April next, to receive Pupils to the number of 26, from 9 years old and upwards;— but entirely declines taking any under nine years of age. Mrs. CRANCH is inclined to hope, that the small number to which she has restricted herself, and the decided improvement of her former Scholars, will induce those Ladies who are anxious to see their Daughters improve in moral rectitude, as well as in scientific knowledge, and ornamental acquirements, to entrust them to her care.

TERMS.

	dolls.
Board per Quarter.	30
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, &c.	6
Astronomy, Geography, Composition, &c. &c.	6
Embroidery, working Muslin,	6
Washing 50 Cents per dozen.

March 7, 1804.

(6w)

Advertisement - Columbian Centinel (published as Columbian Centinel.) - December 20, 1806 - page [2]

Advertisement | Columbian Centinel (published as Columbian Centinel.) | Boston, Massachusetts | December 20, 1806 | Advertisement | Newspaper | Newspaper | image | 1 | [2] | 2373 | © This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society, 2004.

---

Mrs. Cranch's Academy,

JAMAICA PLAIN.

MRS. CRANCH informs her friends and the public, that her winter term commences the 26th of this month, and that a few more young ladies can be admitted. Jamaica Plain, Dec 19

---

Dancing.

MR. L. STIMSON, respectfully informs his friends and the public, That his School for the admission of young Misses and Masters to the polite accomplishment of DANCING, will commence on Thursday, the 16th April, at Mrs. CRANCH'S Academy, Jamaica Plains. Those Parents and Guardians who will entrust their Children under Mr S's Instruction, may be assured that he will use his utmost exertions in keeping good order and regulation in his school; and every attention that is in his power will be paid to the improvement of their manners and dancing.

Terms of tuition for each scholar, Ten Dollars per Quarter, including One Dollar paid in advance
april 8

MRS. CRANCH'S ACADEMY.

MRS. CRANCH informs her Friends, and the Public, that she still continues her Academy for young Ladies, at Jamaica Plain, where pupils for the Spring and Summer term, will be received.

Mrs. C. has ever considered the improvement of her youthful charges, in the more interesting departments of morals and manners, as the most important part of her highly responsible station. Those parents who may confide to her care the most precious of all trusts, may also depend upon a maternal attention to the health of their children. The progress of her pupils in the usual branches of polite literature and needle-work, she trusts has already evidenced a conscientious discharge of her engagements. The distance of her Academy being only 5 miles from Boston, renders its situation peculiarly eligible — as masters in music, drawing and dancing, will attend from town.

Parents, residing at a great distance, are assured that particular tenderness shall be shown to their children, as they are removed from their natural protectors.

March 6

Advertisement - Salem Gazette (published as SALEM GAZETTE.) - August 4, 1809 - page [1]

Advertisement | Salem Gazette (published as SALEM GAZETTE.) | Salem, Massachusetts | August 4, 1809 | Advertisement | Newspaper | Newspaper | image | [1] | 1874 | XXIII | © This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society, 2004.

Mrs. Cranch's and Mrs. Peabody's Academy.

MRS. CRANCH and Mrs. PEABODY respectfully inform their friends and the public, that they unitedly intend opening an Academy in the house of Col. Hathorne, Essex Street, for the instruction of young ladies in Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography with the use of the Globes, Rhetoric, Composition, History, Astronomy, Plain and Ornamental Needlework, Drawing and Painting, and Music.

They will commence in a few weeks. The accommodations will be convenient, and are well known by the citizens of Salem to be central. The use of the Piano Forte and terms of instruction in Music will be the same, as at similar institutions. Misses in the lower branches will be admitted on terms according to attentions required.

N. B. A few young ladies, who wish to qualify themselves in the higher branches for instruction of schools and Academies, can be received as boarders.

Iwtf

July 25.

Advertisement - Essex Register - March 21, 1810 - page [1]

Advertisement | Essex Register | Salem, Massachusetts | March 21, 1810 | Advertisement | Newspaper | Newspaper | image | [1] | 23 | X | ©
This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society. 2004.

Mrs. Cranch and Peabody.

WILL commence the Spring term of their
ACADEMY, on the 16th of April next.—
In consequence of their partnership, they will receive double the number, which Mrs. PEABODY formerly received. Those young ladies who are engaged, are requested to be punctual at the opening of the Quarter. Terms as usual, and will be made known on application.

Sw

March 14

Advertisement - Salem Gazette (published as SALEM GAZETTE.) - April 5, 1811 - page [3]

Advertisement | Salem Gazette (published as SALEM GAZETTE.) | Salem, Massachusetts | April 5, 1811 | Advertisement | Newspaper | Newspaper | image | 2 | [3] | 2048 | XXV | © This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society. 2004.

Mrs. CRANCH

HAVING dissolved her partnership with Mrs. PEABODY, has removed her Academy to Market-Street, where she will be ready to receive her Pupils, after the 10th instant: till that period applications for admission may be made at her house in Williams-Street.

Those who wish to be instructed in Painting or upon the Pianoforte, will be attended by professors of these arts.

April 5.

UXBRIDGE ACADEMY.

MRS. CRANCH proposes opening an ACADEMY for Young Ladies in Uxbridge, where will be taught, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Rhetoric and Composition, Geography, History, Drawing and Painting, and Ornamental and Plain Needle Work.

As Mrs. CRANCH has long superintended an institution of this kind, and has engaged a young Lady of unquestionable abilities in her profession, as Preceptress, she hopes that she shall give satisfaction to parents who may entrust their children to her care. Mrs. Cranch has taken a commodious house, for the purpose of receiving young ladies from the neighboring towns as Boarders.

TERMS.

Board, separate from washing,	$ 24	per Qr.
Tuition in all the literary branch.	} 5
es and in plain needle-work,
Ornamental needle-work,	2
Drawing and painting,	2

The School will be open for admission of Pupils, on Wednesday, the 20th of May—

Those who wish for admision will please to call and leave their names with the Rev. Mr.
Judson.

Uxbridge, (Mass.) May 2.

---

Dedham Academy and Boarding School,

Recently superintended by the late Mrs. CRANCH,

WILL now be conducted by Misses R. and L. BOARDMAN; to be opened on the second Monday in April. One of the young ladies having been for some time Preceptress for Mrs C. whose reputation as an Instructress was distinguished and well known, will, they presume, have much influence in procuring for them the patronage of Dedham and its vicinity.
Every attention will be paid to those who may be placed under their care.

Board (exclusive of washing) per quarter	$	30	00
Tuition, in common branches,	-	6	00
do. in ornamental do.	-	8	00

Dedham, March 25.